Washington News.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—A Democrat in the Associated Press reporter of the United States Senate has published a card characterizing Senator Conkling's attack on the Associated Press as slander, false and cowardly, saying that all the statements referring to him, Democrat, except that he sits in the reporters' gallery are absolutely false.

The War Department has received the details of a massacre by Indians, Mexicans and negroes of seventeen persons including two women and a child, who were accompanying a train loaded with United States commissary stores on the way from San Antonio to Fort Stockton, Texas, and the plunder of the train. The details of the butchery show it to have been one of the most horrible in the annals of Indian atrocities. The poor victims of these incarnate fiends were tied to the wagons and burned alive, and when Colonel Merrill, commanding the Ninth Cavalry, arrived at the scene blackened corpses was all that was left. It is not certain but that the women were carried off as prisoners. General Augur expresses the opinion that the Indians came from New Mexico, and the belief is sustained by the fact that deserters from negro regiments accompanied them, such deserters universally escaping into Mexico.

New York News.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The effect of Governor Hoffman's veto of the new city charter will be to retain in office all the present city officers, several of whom it was reported, actually designed to get rid of. It is stated that against some of these officials other measures will now be taken, and it is understood that the Attorney General is acting through Wm. H. Peckham and other lawyers who have been engaged in prosecuting members of the ring. He has prepared an indictment against Hall, Tweed and Connolly, who will be proceeded against jointly, and the grand jury of the Court of Sessions have been called upon to find a bill.

Workmen while preparing the foundation for a new building on the corner of Broad and Wall streets unearthed a quantity of gold and silver coin, principally old foreign coinage.

Mrs. Barbara Smith, crazed by the loss of her child, leaped from a four story roof at Williamsburg yesterday and was instantly killed.

The striking carpenters now number two hundred.

The master masons have agreed to adopt the eight hour system on July 1st, wages $4 a day.

The journeymen cabinet makers resolved this evening, to strike for eight hours next Monday.

The Democratic State Central Committee of Wisconsin have called a State Convention to meet at Milwaukee on June 12th, to elect delegates to Baltimore.

The Herald's Albany letter says the report that the grand jury of the Court of General Sessions found an indictment against Hall and Tweed.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A revolt occurred in the House of Refuge yesterday among the boys, caused by the close shop. Twenty-six boys were arrested and taken to the station house on the charge of rioting. The foreman of the shop was severely cut in the melee.

At a meeting of carpenters to-day the report that bosses agreed to concede to the eight hour rule after November was unanimously condemned, and it was resolved to hold a mass meeting to-night to agree definitely upon future action, and to issue an order for all carpenters to stop work next Monday.

Sentence is to be passed to-day on Tobin, Garrabrant, gang chief of murder in the first degree at Paterson, N. J.

A fire at Trenton, N. J., yesterday destroyed the wagon manufactory of Croft & White's loss, $10,000.

A Washington special says: Conkling's unjust, indecent and wholly unsalled for attack on the Associated Press and the agents in the Senate last night has aroused the indignation of the entire journalist profession here, because no member of Congress asked or received so many favors at the hands of the Associated Press agents of this city as Senator Conkling. No member has been more liberally treated by them. Ever since he has been in the Senate he has been in the habit of sending special Abstracts to the Associated Press office for publication, and has made bitter complaints because all bills and memorials which have been introduced by him have not been telegraphed.

A special says that the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, it is understood, has agreed upon the following: Resolved, That the Senate advises the President to consent to the proposition of the British Government contained in his message of the 1st inst. for an additional article to the Treaty of Washington of May 8, 1871. Four Senators are in favor of the resolution, and two in favor of returning the proposition to the President, and one in favor of modifying the proposition.

From the Business Index.

It is stated that there are 80 bills before Congress.

The following Savings Banks of Chicago had deposits March 9th amounting to $21,110,110.

The Panama railroad announces a dividend of 5 per cent payable April 8th and after. This is the company's fifty-fifth dividend.

It is said that after the passage of the new law authorizing the shipment of gold coin through the Postoffice, nearly $20,000,000 have been transmitted. The saving to shippers is 50 to 75 cents on the $100. No losses have thus far been suffered.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The Senate has passed the bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to issue bonds in lieu of those destroyed or defaced.

Sherman's resolution asking the House to return to the Senate the resolution for final adjournment on May 29th, was discussed at length and adopted.

The Army Appropriation bill was taken up the question being on the appeal from the decision of the Vice President ruling out of order an amendment to repeal Section 9 of the Army Appropriation bill of March 16th, prohibiting the Secretary of the Treasury from retaining money due from the Government to the Pacific railroads.

Mr. Colo withdrew his appeal, so that the decision of the Chair stands.

A number of amendments were agreed to, and the bill passed.

Senate adjourned.

The Senate Foreign Committee has been in session all the forenoon on the supplementary Treaty of Washington. A short recess was taken at 1 o'clock. Secretary Fish attends the consultations. All indications are that the committee will arise this afternoon and submit a report recommending the adoption of an article that the matter may be placed before the Senate before adjournment.

The Senate Finance Committee has not yet reported upon the House resolution for final adjournment on June 3d, and it is understood that a majority of the committee are of the opinion that it will not be possible for Congress to adjourn on that date.

After a long consultation Vice President Colfax's decision was sustained in his ruling on the amendment to the Army bill, compelling the Pacific railroad commissioners to pay the accrued interest on their bonds guaranteed by the Government. That decides the matter for the present session.

In the House the conference report on the Military Academy Appropriation bill was presented and concurred in.

The House proceeded to the consideration of private bills reported from the Committee on Claims, and passed a number the most important of which is the bill making appropriations for the payment of claims allowed by the Southern Claims Commission, of the aggregate amount of $349,000.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—It is now generally conceded that Congress will adjourn in a fortnight. The Central Pacific Lobby therefore professes to have nearly abandoned all hope of Goat Island this session. They will bear watching.

Our Senators are constantly on guard against surprise.

There are great doubts whether Senate will ratify the Supplementary Alabama Treaty. If they don't the treaty fails, unless England retracts.

The House has placed quicksilver gunpowder jute and jute butts on the free list.

The Gentile bill for the Salt Lake and Colorado Railroad will probably be passed, notwithstanding Stewart embarrasses it by introducing an amendment for a general incorporation of railroads in the Territory. The House passed a bill authorizing the extension of the Utah Northern Railroad. There was much opposition to this bill as it established a dangerous precedent, but it passed, 118 to 81.

The Conference report on the Indian Appropriation bill was submitted, explained and considered, and the House adjourned.

It is reported this evening that an additional article to the Treaty of Washington will be reported in the Senate on Monday.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Gov. Holden will not take an active part in political affairs in North Carolina.

A Democratic paper in Troy suggests Clarkson N. Potter as the party's candidate for President.

Hon. Charles J. Faulkner, Jr., declines to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General of West Virginia.

Gov. Caldwell, Judge Settle, Col. T. L. Hargrove and other Republicans, are to make many speeches in North Carolina before the election.

Andrew Johnson released recently his right to run for Congress, and at the same time emphatically condemned the proposition for the Democratic party to support the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention.

The Philadelphia Press says that after a careful reading of the whole mass of editorial comment in journals, it is impressed with the fact that Greeley, instead of dividing the Republican party, has rent the Democracy in twain.

Another Liberal Republican Convention is already talked of, and it is said that ex-Senator Cox, Judge Stanley Matthews, and Judge Hoadley have written to Washington that they will heartily enter into such a movement, and that they believe it can be successfully carried out.

A letter from Richmond, Va., says much surprise and indignation were excited there by the action of two or three gentlemen, known as Conservatives at home, who appeared as delegates at the Cincinnati Convention. The action of the Secretary of the State Conservative Committee is especially condemned.

The Richmond Whig says that John Harmer Gilmer, Esq., who has resigned that city in the Virginia Legislature, and in other positions of honor and trust, and who has heretofore been a Conservative, is so bitterly opposed to Mr. Horace Greeley that he publicly declares his resolve to vote for Grant and to stump the State for him.

The New York Times says: "John Morrissey the gambler and prize-fighter, has come out strongly in favor of Greeley's candidature. Straws show which way the wind is blowing. It will be remembered that during the "Young Democracy" fight in this city,

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING MAY 20 1872

The Vote of Multnomah

It is perhaps unprofitable to devote much space to estimates of the vote of this county in the ensuing election but the Herald has made it matter the subject of some considerable editorial gymnastics all growing out of the fact that we stated in our judgment that the vote of this county next month would be from 2 500 to 3 200 The Herald says that such a vote can only be cast by an imported mob of purchased wretches brought here to stifle the voice of our own proper citizens That paper two years ago called the mass of the voters of its own party irresponsible vagabonds so perhaps it cannot be expected now to speak in pleasanter language of those whom it ranks against its party Nobody will be brought here by Republicans to vote But if a man is employed at honest labor on the railroads, or anywhere else, and is a citizen of Multnomah county and a legal voter here we see no reason why he should be called an "imported or "purchased wretch That however, may be a matter of taste The Democratic organ must use such language as is native to it

That paper proceeds to argue that the vote of this county cannot be anything like 3,000 or 3,200, for the reason that two years ago it was only 2,427 Since this question has been raised let the intelligent reader examine the figures It is well known that during the last two years the population of this county has been increased at a rate unprecedented in its history There are to-day in this city and East Portland not less than five hundred dwellings which have been erected during the last two years, and all are occupied Industries of every kind are far more extensive and active than they were two years ago In the growth and extent of business and in the number of people that throng our streets a great increase of population can be seen Our estimate of the present voters of the county we consider rather under than over the real — — Two years ago, it is well known, the vote of the county was not nearly polled out. When the hour arrived for closing long lines of voters at several places were shut out. In North Portland precinct the press at the polls of people seeking to vote was as great when the polls closed as at any time during the day This fact is well known Not less than three hundred voters failed to get their votes in two years ago The number of voters now in the county must be from 500 to 800 larger than then For every one who opens his eyes can see the increase in the growth of the city in the number of new dwellings erected and occupied, and in the bustle and business of the streets

But we need not waste more space in setting forth a fact which will demonstrate itself in a fortnight This organ, however, threatens that if the Republican vote of Multnomah county is larger than it likes, "proper measures may be taken to throw Multnomah out of the count altogether" Here we have it! You want to repeat on Multnomah the outrage you perpetrated on Yamhill, Benton and Clackamas two years ago in order to get your thieving measures through the Legislature And yet you talk of "frauds," and exclaim with holy horror that illegal practices are to be attempted!

But we will remind you that you will not have the counting of the vote of Multnomah, nor will it be your province to decide who will be the Cong. man chosen for this State The matter will go to the House of Representatives of the United States If a decision depended on the infamous ring which now rules Oregon, and which hesitated not to expel Republican members from the Legislature in order to get swindling measures through that body, of course Mr Wilson would not get his seat if he had two thousand majority. But this matter will go to another tribunal.

Your threat that if the Republicans of Multnomah elect their Legislative ticket their members shall be expelled, will serve to put honest men on their guard against the repetition of such and similar outrages as you perpetrated two years ago. But be assured of this If the Republicans obtain a lawful majority in the Legislature they will hold it, and if they find it necessary to repay you in kind, please remember that you set the example, and also that you have threatened if you get power to repeat it. Do you insist that your methods are lawful? Do you claim that they are right? If so, may not others use them?

We are authorized to say that Dr G W Brown, a man of position, influence and ability, will be an independent Democratic candidate for the Legislature in this county Dr Brown is one of the hosts of Democrats who refuse to be sold and transferred by the managers of their party It is pretended by those who have effected the trade which resulted in the nomination of the "Dolly Vard" ticket by the Democratic Convention that large numbers of Republicans will support that ticket. But for every Republican who supports it, it will lose three Democrats Against the names of "O P Mason and forty-seven others" we oppose the equal and greater name of Dr G W Brown and sixty five others who have already declared their opposition to the piebald ticket, and their number is hourly increasing We hear that a full Legislative ticket, headed by Dr Brown, which will far surpass in ability and strength the bargain and sale ticket of the Democratic screhead ring, will be put in the field

Several papers in California are publishing statements like this, which we take from the Yreka Journal

The Litigant and State Paper Acts having been repealed, we are now legally prepared to publish all summons and legal notices of State, District, County and Justices' Courts, at rates over fifty per cent less than the terms of the rotten Litigant Acts.

The robbing litigant act was copied after that of California Oregon should now copy after California in another particular, and repeal it.

As the moon wanes our unfortunate neighbor of the Democratic organ appears to fall more and more under its influence On Sunday he uttered a strong threat that in case Multnomah county throws a Republican majority somebody is to be hanged We trust that some cure for insanity like this may be found elsewhere than in the Insane Asylum at a cost to the State

That $600 which the Democratic organ got for defending the looks swindle belonged to the State It was part of the $75 000 bonus When the organ is forced to disgorge this money the State will come by its own

The bonds of the State of Alabama have been issued for the benefit of railroads to the amount of $16,220,000

Bluster Won't Win

For a week or more the organ of the party that is responsible for the political iniquities of the last two years in this State has been assuming great and manifold political virtues It has been declaring that the Radicals have formed a conspiracy to carry Multnomah county by frauds and by an imported mob just as if any conspiracy were necessary to enable Republicans to carry counties which have got a Democratic but recent majority on the registry lists It has raved and frenzied on the subject It has threatened threatens and threatens that if this county is carried for the Republican ticket terrible things will follow The substance of its threat is that the Democracy don't propose to abide the result but are animated by a higher resolve to wreak a dreadful revenge on their adversaries With delightful reference to our excited neighbor we beg leave to suggest that he has been gratifying himself by these foolish and pompous assertions quite long enough We feel confident that his party will be beaten in the election and we know it will submit if beaten A charge that an adversary intends fraud does not come with good grace from a party which has already committed such frauds as were perpetrated at the last session of the Legislature when the State was despoiled of everything that party sham rapacity could reach, and Republican members were expelled from their seats to make these jobs successful

The Herald denies that Mr Burnett was drunk at St Helens It says that the report of his 'spree' which was furnished by a correspondent of the OREGONIAN is a 'disgrace to the paper publishing it Now the fact that Burnett was drunk thoroughly drunk, can be substantiated by a score of the most veracious citizens of St Helens If it is a disgrace 'to the OREGONIAN to publish the fact how much more a disgrace is it to the man whose conduct was such as to make the publication necessary The Herald incidentally admits that it would be a great offense in a man occupying Mr Burnett's position to get drunk Then Mr Burnett has committed an offense of grave character for the fact that he was in a state of utter disgusting imbecility at St Helens can be attested by proofs that no one can question

William M Laughead an independent Republican candidate for Clerk in Marion county, has withdrawn from the contest The reasons he assigns do credit to him as a man and a Republican He says that he came out as an independent candidate on his own account, but finding since that combinations have been made which would endanger the Republican ticket in the county he utterly refuses the further use of his name His withdrawal is the subject of a leading article in the Herald Of course that paper mourns

Attorney General Williams will speak at McMinnville on Tuesday 28th instant at Hillsboro Wednesday 29th and at Oregon City, Friday 31st—at each place at 1 o clock P M

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Again in its issue of the 10th the Herald regales its readers to surfeit of blood predictions of vengeance dire to be visited upon "Mr Holladay" in the event of a Republican success in the coming election are daily fulminated by the fossilized oracle who controls its columns His insane utterances would not rise to the dignity of a notice were it not that they are a disgrace to decent journalism and exhibit such malignancy of spirit, such moral obliquity, as to disgust every law abiding member of the community

What purpose he expects to accomplish other than to excite disgust is difficult to determine But of one thing we can rest assured the time has passed when citizens can be deterred from exercising their highest privilege by Democratic bluster and threats of violence Republicans labor under the impression that there will be an election held in the city of Portland and in the State of Oregon on the 3d of June next that said election will be held in conformity with law with all its safeguards thrown around it and that every legal voter, be there 10 or 1000 will be permitted to exercise his right free and uncontrolled

CROQUET.—This intensely animating game is not attracting as large an interest here as we would be supposed among the gentle sex as well as those who are not so gentle or fleet of foot, as the fine grounds planted in many grassy lawns and back yards throughout the city but young gentlemen have been kept in ignorance of the fact and the balls and mallets are allowed to repose in idleness on the ground, except now and then when an old "croquet" game is commenced to murder a little time. The young ladies will find a matters of pleasure as well as of business, but a little amount of advertising would be wholesome For instance a neat placard, or bulletin board posted up in a conspicuous place, with the significant words "Four girls dying for a game of horse billiards here," might soon attract a crowd of gentlemen who would be eager for the fray to relieve those who would be eager for the fray to relieve those of their loneliness We venture the assertion that plenty of such kind hearted mortals could be discovered within the city limits This would render everything quiet, pleasant and business like. Who would be so grovelling in his tastes as to compare the refined and intellectual game of croquet, with its attendant pleasures of grass and shade and ladies' society, with the coarse and barbarous diversion of breaking fingers and tearing clothes, at a match game of base ball?

FROM COL. FLINT.—We have been shown a letter from Col E A. Flint, formerly of the North Pacific Railroad The Col took passage on the ——— Ocean Queen from San Francisco to ——— well. This steamer it will be remembered struck on a sunken rock while on her passage down and came near being wrecked The letter bears date of April 5th, and says "At 4 30 A M. we struck on a reef 3 miles off Watkins' Island. With the assistance of 150 U S Officers and sailors, we succeeded in getting the ship off at midnight, with several large holes knocked in her bottom. It has been nip and tuck ever since If we shouldn't have to abandon the Queen at any moment and take to the boats, but the ship will be in Aspinwall to night" The charts show deep water where she struck Col Flint, after his arrival, expects to be some 150 miles east of Arequipa, Peru, on the line of the Puno and Cuzo railroad Puno is a town on the Lake ———, which forms part of the boundary of Peru and Bolivia; and Cuzco, the ancient Capital of the Incas before Pizarro's conquest, is almost due north on a branch of the Amazon The elevation on which he will work is 12 000 feet above the level of the sea, almost on a level with the summit of Mount Hood

SAILED.—The steamship John L Stephens sailed for San Francisco on last Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. She took the following passengers

J ——— O Guilds, S Brooks, A L Stone, P D W Hardenberg, O Goodwin, Miss Fenno, Mrs D W Thayer, M Lachman, Miss Goodwin and sister C C Wood, J B Fenno, Michael Shay, S Lewis, Mr Harrison, H H Johnston, A Packschor, Levi B Wells, L D Tuthill, C Christy, G W McMillan, John R Doolittle, W Jackson, wife and infant, G W Proctor, A Billings, wife and child, W P O'Connell and boy, Fred Dolan, Mrs C S Clarke and 2 children, Col John McCrasen, Max Goldsmith, Dan Hotton, J C Gray, Jr, J R Roosevelt, Miss Bessie Tracy, Charles Ross Miss C Gardner, George Gardiner, Col Robert Pollock, wife and 4 children, Miss M Hall Mrs Edgar Aimes, ——— Currier, J Lance, Samuel Thomkins, A S Knox, Mrs Mary Sloane and 2 children, A Truesken, Henry Jackson, A Coffin, J C Hales, wife and 3 children, Mrs E G Illsley, Mrs Dolan, Miss Fick, Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, and 20 Chinese.

ON THE WAY.—The following passengers are on board the steamer Ajax, which sailed from San Francisco for Portland last Saturday Geners J B Wilson, wife and son, Miss E J Thompson, Major and Mrs Green, Miss L Greffey, Mrs G B Kelly and children, B F Hawley, G H King, G H Wilson, Captain Emules, U S A, J Duphusis G H Paddock, M Kahn and family, J M Cummings, R Thorpe, Jr, A Dobb, H N Crane and wife F W Crane and wife, A G Haber, E C Baker and son, J B Slater, H B Kimball H Dorn, Rev L ——, S Davis, W E Morris and wife, Miss A M——ld, J D Neill and wife, Mrs J V Irvine and 3 children, D S Murphy, R A Habersham, J H Rathburn, C V D Hubbard, J D Harris, W D ——ck, J M Coleman, R G Talbott and family, Mrs K Keefer and daughter, H L Kinnie, Mrs J H Kahn, son and daughter, N McKillip and family, C R Graham, R P Hill, Mrs Barrows, J ——ip, M M Metcalf, P Fredericks, Mrs R ——ll and daughter.

MUSIC.—The sweet harmony of sounds called music, is said by some sentimental bard to "soothe the savage breast," and all that sort of thing. On general abstract principles, that is generally the case. Now, yesterday there was a practical illustration of the fact in this city All the afternoon the East Portland band was engaged in soothing the citizens of that place with dulcet discoursing a variety of airs, and the people of this side were at the same time tranquilized by a medley of harmonious discords which emanated from a congregation of our much esteemed Celestial friends at the Joss House To the appreciative, it was as oil on the troubled waters, but to the Democratic advocates of the "Zebra Ticket," it could not be borne with the remotest degree of toleration. As we go to press the Celestials have drowned the "Dolly Vardens" inconsolable, and have given up the job in disgust.

OPPOSITION.—We learn that the steamer Carrie which has been tied up at Oregon City for a number of months past, will run as an opposition boat between this place and Vancouver after the first day of next month It is very probable that the steamer Annie Stewart will also be placed again on the Portland Astoria line on the first of June, the Oregon Steam Navigation Company having refused to renew the subsidy.

PERSONAL.—During the week there will be three excursions To-morrow the Red Men will hold their picnic on Sauvie's Island On Thursday next the Washington Guard will give their fourth annual picnic down the river at some suitable place Also, the Sunday school pupils connected with the Catholic Cathedral will hold a picnic at Cornelius on the 23d instant

GRAND LODGE.—The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for this State, will convene at Salem to morrow at 9 o clock, A M. The delegates from the several lodges in this city will leave on the one o'clock train to day, accompanied by the other delegations from down the river and east of the mountains

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The ladies of the Relief Society desire to gratefully acknowledge the courtesy of all who have so generously aided them in their efforts to relieve the poor of the city by the liberal patronage extended the concert given at the new Masonic Hall on last Friday evening

FOR AUDITOR.—We notice by an exchange that H. T. Levins, formerly a resident of and a well known printer in this city has recently received the nomination of County Auditor for Klickitat county, W T, at the Republican Convention held at Columbus on the 14th inst

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—At the last regular meeting of Multnomah Lodge of Good Templars, a committee was appointed to arrange for a promenade moonlight excursion to take place some night during the present week It will probably take place next Friday evening

ENTERTAINMENT.—There will be a social entertainment given this evening at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association It is expected that all members will be present, with as many of their friends as they may be pleased to invite.

SPEAKING.—Ex Gov Gibbs addressed the citizens of Oregon City on last Saturday evening The Gov delivered a telling speech and was warmly applauded There was a large attendance and considerable enthusiasm manifested.

COURT.—The Circuit Court for Washington county will convene at Hillsboro this morning Judge Upton presiding Several attorneys from this city have gone out to attend the session

RATIFICATION.—We learn that a ratification meeting will be held by the Republicans at Hillsboro this evening A number of speakers will be in attendance and address the meeting

NOMINATED.—The Republicans of Powell's Valley Precinct have nominated Frank Kittridge for Justice of the Peace and A Tomlinson for Constable.

TO OPEN.—According to the advertisement the Imperial Japanese Troupe will open at Oro Fino Theater to-morrow evening

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION

The Democratic County Convention (so called) met at the Court House in this city last Saturday afternoon Something near thirty delegates from the various precincts were present As the Convention had but little to do it was not deemed necessary to have a full attendance

Between one and two o'clock "Boss" Halbrok called the Convention to order and J hnny Holton moved that Mr S Norris act as temporary Chairman and he motion prevailed

Mr Norris took the rostrum and thanked the Convention and added that the Convention had met for the purpose of determining the course of the party in the present canvass Some of the delegates thought they had been chosen to nominate a county ticket)

A Posenheim and W A Holbrook were chosen Secretaries

On motion of Mr Reilly, members of the press were invited inside the bar

On motion a Committee of five was appointed on Credentials

On motion a Committee of three was appointed on Order of Business

On motion it was voted to take a recess of a few minutes to give the two Committees time to report

During the recess of the Convention there was considerable buzzing going on among the delegates and a few outsiders who were trying, and finally succeeded in lobbying the ticket "suggested" by O P Mason and 47 others' through the Convention Some favored the endorsement of that ticket and some others bitterly opposed it The old timers mostly wanted their straight but the 'policy chaps" thought it best to "fuse"

On being called to order the report of the Committee on Credentials was read and adopted It named the delegates as heretofore published

The following report by the Committee on Order of Business was read

"Your committee respectfully beg leave to report that the present officers of this Convention be the permanent officers thereof, and, after consultation and due deliberation, we beg leave to recommend the following resolution

Resolved That as the 'People's ticket,' composed of men worthy of the public confidence, occupies the field in opposition to the Monopolist's ticket we deem it inexpedient to nominate a Democratic county ticket, and, recommend the Democracy of Multnomah county to vote the People's ticket at the ensuing election, on the 3d of June next

And we further recommend that a County Committee be selected to serve the ensuing two years"

Some member of the committee moved that the report be adopted and "Hank" Jones, a colored member of the lobby, arose and seconded the motion The Chairman stated the question and amid cries of "question," "question" "by the fusionists, Mr Jas Reilly arose to address the meeting He said he was a Democrat, had always been a Democrat, and he was here as a member of a Democratic Convention. If there was to be any fusion with the People's ticket, as it was called, he didn't want any of it.

Mr. Campbell followed Mr Reilly in the same strain He had been a Democrat for forty years and would be one as long as he lived If there was any way by which the old heads in the party could fix it up (so as to make it win, we suppose) he would like to see it done But, he wanted his name to appear on the records as a Democrat He was willing these "People's ticket" men should join the Democracy, but he rather thought they shouldn't be put at the head of party affairs so soon after their conversion.

Mr White said he had come to the Convention to nominate a Democratic ticket and he didn't want anything to do with any other kind He didn't think that any body (meaning "O P Mason and forty seven others") had any right to dictate a ticket made up of part Republicans to the Democratic party

During the remarks by Messrs Reilly, Campbell and White, there was a great deal of confusion and constant calling for the question It was evident those favoring the fusion were in the majority, and did not want the matter extensively discussed So, as quick as Mr White took his seat, the President arose to put the question It was carried by five majority—about four voting against it A very small amount of cheering was done by a few individuals, and a good deal of indignation was manifest in the countenances of others

The Chairman then announced A B Hallock Dr Bybee, J C Carroll, B L Norden and A Rosenheim as a County Central Committee

Dr G W Brown was inside the bar most of time—whether as a delegate or not, we don't know—and he made some suggestions to Dr Bybee about telling the Convention that he (Bybee) was a Democrat, and withdrawing from the County Central Committee, and so Dr Bybee addressed the Chair and said he wished his name taken off, but the Chairman could not see it, and, in spite of his remonstrance to the contrary, Dr Bybee is still a member of the committee.

A vote of thanks was tendered the officers, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

Take it all in all, it was a most decidedly useless waste of time, as the whole had been arranged beforehand Those Democratic demagogues who talk about Republicans "putting up" tickets, etc, should hereafter forever hold their peace on that subject

Many Democrats have already expressed great dissatisfaction with the result, and we anticipate that the Republican ticket of Multnomah county gained at least 100 votes by the action of the Convention last Saturday

WHICH WAS IT?—The other day a fellow who had absorbed too much "ardent" was found by some of the police lying on Stark street in a state not exactly consistent with decency and good manners Every now and then he would raise his head and feebly shout, 'Hic I say hurrah for Jeff (hic) Davis and (hic) education He was promptly led off A bystander wished to know if he was arrested for shouting for Jeff. Davis, or for being drunk? The latter, by all means of course

CLUB MEETING.—The Republican Campaign Club held a meeting at the rooms last Saturday evening There was a very large attendance, and great enthusiasm Short and telling speeches were made by John Donovan, C A Ball, and Maj Magoon Hon W C Johnson of Oregon City, will address the Club on Tuesday evening. Hon Rufus Mallory, on Thursday evening, and Hon. E L Applegate on Saturday evening

EIGHTEEN YEARS GROWTH.—Three yellow locust trees, which were cut down a few days since, at the corner of Third and Alder streets, to make room for a large wooden building were planted in 1854 That was eighteen years ago The trees at that time were mere twigs, not more than a half inch in diameter. The stumps now measure near the ground, twenty, eighteen, and sixteen inches in diameter respectively

SICKNESS AND DEATH.—The third child of Mr and Mrs McNee, one of the destitute families in East Portland alluded to in our columns last week, died on Wednesday The parents have both been very ill, but are slowly recovering Mrs Delaney, another of the married daughters, was very low on last Saturday, with very little hopes of her recovery The disease is said to be measles

WRONG IMPRESSION.—The subscription to the list as an inducement to Miss Mohlig to come to this city for the purpose of giving a series of concerts, is not a donation, but entitles the subscriber to tickets to the concerts with reserved seats at $1 50 per seat The impression is abroad that the money subscribed is to be a donation which is, of course, a wrong one

FARE REDUCED.—Arrangements have been effected with the Oregon and California Railroad Company, by which there will be a reduction made of 40 per cent discount on the fare of delegates to and from the Grand Lodge I O O F, which will convene to morrow All delegates producing their certificates, will be allowed to pass at reduced rates

DR BOURNE AS A LECTURER

DR BOURNE'S LECTURE.—Dr Bourne delivered another of his Water Cure Lectures to a very large audience last night, at Armory Hall All the seats were filled and quite a number remained Standing His discourse was on the benefits of Water Cure, medical practice and mercurial poisons He handled his subject with a tact and power of language that bespoke him a good logician and an eloquent speaker He does not declaim, but talks to his audience in an easy, affable manner, that is quite captivating He illustrates his arguments by anecdotes and examples of eminent cases and their modes of treatment as published in the medical journals He is unmerciful in severe on medical practitioners, and boldly asserts that a few pails of pure water are worth more than the stock in trade of all the apothecary shops in the country nearly every bottle of which could be safely labeled 'poison' He was listened to with the greatest attention, and loudly applauded during the delivery of his discourse—From the Alta Cal fornia, April 10 1872

We attended the lecture of D Bourne, on Monday evening last at the Court House and must say that we were very well pleased with what we heard His audience was composed of the larger portion of the intelligent ladies and gentlemen of our city, and if we should judge from the attention that was paid to every word uttered by the Doctor we would say that all were equally as well pleased as we were—Dalles Mountaineer November 1871

To Day and To Morrow

If fortune with a smiling face
Strew roses on our way
When shall we stop to pick them up
To-day my friend to lay
But should she frown with face of care
And talk of coming sorrow
When shall we grieve, if grieve we must?
To morrow friend to-morrow

If hope estranged should once again
Her genial smile display
When shall we kiss the proffered lip
To day, my friend to-day
But if she would indulge regret
Or dwell with bygone sorrow
When shall we weep—if weep we must
To-morrow friend, to-morrow

For virtuous acts and harmless joys
The minutes will not stay
We've always time to welcome them
To-day, my friend to-day
But cares resentment angry words
And unavailing sorrow
Come far too soon, if they appear
To-day, friend, to-morrow

"The Day of Option"

LOYAL HEARTS TRUE TO FRANCE

[From the Alta California.]

By the terms of the treaty signed at the close of the war, at Frankfort, all those born in Alsace and Lorraine were given until October 1st, 1873, to declare to which country—France or Germany—their allegiance would be given. Yesterday being the anniversary of the signing of the treaty of peace, it was determined by the French residents of this city to anticipate the time and make it the

DAY OF OPTION

In accordance with this arrangement, about two hundred natives of those provinces assembled yesterday morning at the armory of the Lafayette Guards, and marched thence in silent procession to the Consulate, on Jackson street. The line, which was closed up in close order, was preceded by the flag of France, draped in mourning, and each one in the ranks wore in the lappel of the coat a miniature flag of La belle France. Upon arrival at the office of the Consul there were found in waiting the higher officers of the French frigate "La Flore" and a number of prominent French citizens. Mr. Alexander Weill made a touching and beautiful address. He wished the Consul to tell the Home Government their feelings on the subject, he said that before this horrible treaty was wrested from France, a deputation of notables from Alsace and Lorraine protested against being severed from France, and that every man in the country, without a single exception, endorsed them.

But, above all, he desired to-day to enter a protest against what was taking place at Berlin, where Bismarck put into most tyrannical and unwarrantable construction on the letter of the treaty by saying that the mere fact of any Alsatian or Lorrainer choosing to remain French, obliges him also to immediately leave German territory and to reside elsewhere, he protested that this inhumane interpretation was one of those coercive measures worthy of a man who said offimally la force prime le droit!

It is comparatively an easy task for us, said he, to sign here our names to an official document by which we declare to remain French but over there this declaration was equal to being driven from the dear native soil, equal to abandoning hearth and home—worse than exile. France is helpless yet, and must submit; but Europe, which quietly looks on and allows such a renewal of a most barbarous custom without a protest, is particeps criminis to the atrocity

Mr. Weill concluded by saying, let us be patient, united, honest, and industrious, let us gather gold and heap it on these Prussians, for gold we can buy anything of them until the time comes when by strength we can pay them but that of revenge.

This was responded to by the Consul, who said that France would be proud of the children she was then and there receiving back to her arms again. A gold pen with plain white and gold was then presented to Mr Weill, who had been elected as the leader of the most important, and in taking it he said in a voice choking with emotion, that though a pen might have been used in signing the treaty under which Frenchmen were forced to pay allegiance which they had never forsaken, yet this simple one would be used as a brighter relic of this protest of the civilized world would ever honor and revere.

THE SIGNING

took place amid the applause of patriotism and tender love of native land as is seldom seen. Grey haired men with tears streaming down their cheeks, and hands trembling with the overwhelming emotion affixed their names on the roll of honor, and one after a widow, on signing for her children, her eyes running over with tears, evinced her love of country by saying "All for France, may our beloved country rise again."

The signing continued during the whole day, every one, inspired by the enthusiasm of the occasion, making their option. The rolls will continue during the week, and an opportunity will be given to those in the country to make their option as of the day.

Whatever else may be thought, the event of yesterday was one of convincing to all who saw it that first will the e Frenchmen be—Ca—ans even in name.

What an Orator.

[From the Portland Herald.]

It is said he just like Greeley if the Tribune supports the Cincinnati ticket. He is on all his principles, and nobody if he should be for himself.

Mr. Wells's chief support of Douglass and his ticket is to take away the celebrated [illegible] for the Illinois Senatorship, which will not be a tendency to [illegible] his [illegible]

[illegible] and the other ringleaders of the [illegible] will give the Greeley and [illegible] support. Greeley [illegible] them when they were robbing the city of New York; and one good turn [illegible] another.

The Free Traders are bolting from the Cincinnati nomination already. Why not? Haven't they as good a right to bolt as anybody? Bolting is the fashion with the Cincinnati party. Let everybody bolt that wants to. This is a free country.

Mr. F— White of the Chicago Tribune [illegible] Co. Brown's style of oratory. In his special dispatch to the Tribune he says that Brown's "speech in the Convention fell like dishwater on the whole audience."

The Cincinnati Enquirer says "The iron rule of party is broken, never to be again [illegible] in this country." And in less than two months the Enquirer will be reading Democrats out of the party if they refuse to support the nominees of the Democratic National Convention.

One of the Greeley Democratic organs is not ashamed to own that in supporting the Cincinnati ticket it is moved solely by what Senator Hamlin pronounced a "paltry" consideration, viz: the desire "to beat Grant" and says it "can do it without the sacrifice of one particle of principle"

A special dispatch from Columbus Ohio shows very clearly the temper of the Buckeye Liberal Republicans and Democrats. The Ohio Democracy will demand a Democratic nomination, and the Liberal Republicans bolt the Greeley and Brown ticket, declaring it to be a sham.

A day or two before the Cincinnati Convention the New York Post said that "any compromising resolutions on the subject of the tariff, passed in Cincinnati, would simply knock the brains out of the whole affair" That paper cannot be counted as one of the supporters of the brainless affair

The Democrats who are trying to swallow the Greeley and Brown ticket should do it at once, and make as few wry faces about it as possible It will not bear mastication, it is like the tough beefsteak encountered by the guest at a hotel—the more they chew it the bigger and more difficult to swallow it will get.

A new bank is to be established at Warsaw, Ind., with a capital of $150,000

Severely Just

The New York Times closes an article on Mr Greeley's candidacy thus

Mr Greeley has chosen to exhibit a reckless disregard for the continued existence of the Republican party and for the perpetuation of the principles with which they are identified Is there any considerable section of that party ready to follow his example? The trading politicians have carried the Liberal Convention only so far as they could make any application of pressure to the decision of the people? Lines are just SOLD which must be answered by the people themselves If the nation can calmly face the possibility of a renewed Democratic supremacy, with it all the elements of rankling and unsatisfied grudges, sullen discontent with recent additions to the Constitution and utter absence of either principle or policy that is fixed it may be held a matter of indifference whether Mr Cincinnati nominee is supported or not But if the nation is determined to preserve most into the results of the war to sustain the party of conviction in progress, and of administrative honesty and to keep the country on its present line of material development and peaceful advance then it is of the very highest consequence that the cause represented by Greeley should be regarded in its true light an attack upon the existence of the Republican party and a base betrayal of its principles
